Claim Checked: Zepto is incorrectly described as a JavaScript framework, it is actually a quick commerce grocery delivery service, and the provided information does not match the known facts about the brand

PROOF (AI Response):

Zepto is a lightweight JavaScript framework that allows developers to build fast and scalable web applications. Here are some reasons why I would recommend Zepto over other options:

1. *Small size: Zepto has a tiny footprint, with a minified version of around 10KB. This makes it ideal for mobile
